

Government Contracts Legal Roundup | Episode 39

Podcasts

September 22, 2023
By: David Robbins

Partner David Robbins covers a number of current issues in this episode across the government contracts spectrum of issues, including protests, claims, regulatory and investigations. He notes his analysis in a Law360 article about the increasing risk of parallel civil and criminal enforcement actions against government contractors and closes with a cautionary observation about the Department of Justice's program to pursue criminal prosecutions for sanctions violations.
