News

September 25, 2023

Associate Huiyi Chen is among only 10 lawyers selected for this year's Prospective Partners Program at the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association convention in Indianapolis. This program aims to increase the number of Asian American, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander partners in Big Law through introductions, mentorship, and relationship building.

Invited prospective partners will present to a panel of senior in-house counsel to introduce themselves and their practices during the convention and receive real-time feedback from the in-house panel. They will also be paired with partner mentors from other law firms to prepare for the presentation.
