Overview

Mary Brown is responsible for the management of non-partner lawyer recruitment in Jenner & Block's New York office. Her role is closely tied to the New York Hiring Committee, with whom she collaborates to identify the firm's hiring requirements. Mary also plays a pivotal role in all law student recruitment for the New York office. This involves conducting on-campus interviews and overseeing the planning and execution of the summer program in New York. Her contributions are essential to shaping the legal talent landscape in the New York branch of the firm.

Before joining Jenner & Block, Mary served as the Associate Director of Admissions at Northeastern University. In this role, she was responsible for designing, implementing, and analyzing recruitment strategies tailored to specific target audiences for graduate programs. Mary graduated with a BA from Elon University.
