

“Recent Legal Developments in Blockchain: Legislation, Regulation and Enforcement, Litigation and Bankruptcy,” PLI’s Blockchain 2.0: 2023 Legal & Regulatory Developments

Event

October 11, 2023

Speakers: Kayvan Sadeghi

Partner Kayvan Sadeghi will review blockchain-related legal developments of the past year at this CLE sponsored by the Practising Law Institute (PLI). He and other panelists will discuss the regulatory environment for blockchain and crypto assets, areas of regulatory focus, common themes in blockchain litigation, and issues for creditors and insolvent companies.

This half-day program is designed for in-house counsel, outside lawyers, and other professionals using or doing business with blockchain technology. It will be held in person at PLI New York, 1177 Avenue of the Americas, although attendees have an option to watch online. Click here to learn more and register.

Kayvan is a Co-Chair of the firm’s Fintech and Crypto Assets Practice. He helps clients navigate uncharted legal waters and resolve litigation and enforcement matters that threaten their way of doing business.
