

ACLU Utah Honors Partners Jeremy Creelan and Rémi Jaffré with Mickey Duncan Award

News

October 13, 2023

The American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) of Utah recognized Partners Jeremy Creelan and Rémi Jaffré with the 2023 Mickey Duncan Award. The award honors individuals and law firms who share Mickey Duncan's, a founder of the ACLU of Utah, commitment to civil liberties and the protection of individual freedoms.

Jeremy and Remi received this award for their “tireless and excellent work in representing Southern Utah Drag Stars and Mitski Avalox, who filed a lawsuit challenging the city of St. George’s censorship of drag performances.”
