

“Permitting and Compliance – Policy and Implementation Hurdles and Lessons,” Environmental Justice: From Policy to Practice

Event

October 24, 2023

Speakers: Daniel L. Robertson

Associate Daniel Robertson will present at the Air & Waste Management Association’s first specialty conference designed to explore issues of policy and practice in the environmental justice sector. Called Environmental Justice: From Policy to Practice, the two-day conference will provide a forum for discussion about scientific, technical, legal, and related policy issues relevant to environmental justice.

Register Here

In his presentation, Daniel will offer an overview of environmental justice enforcement trends, as well as how companies can embrace environmental justice and community stakeholder concerns in their practices in ways that advance corporate objectives and achieve environmental goals. His session, “Permitting and Compliance – Policy and Implementation Hurdles and Lessons,” will be held on October 24 from 3:30 to 4:50 pm ET. The conference is at the Westin Hotel in Arlington, Virginia.

Click here to learn more and register.

Daniel is a member of the firm’s Environmental and Workplace Health and Safety Practice. With experience in environmental litigation, regulatory compliance, and counseling, he is knowledgeable about air, water, and waste regulations, including permitting and regulatory relief petitions.

Related Attorneys

Daniel L. Robertson

Associate

drobertson@jenner.com

+1 312 840 7219

Related Capabilities

Corporate

Environmental and Workplace Health and Safety

Related Locations

Chicago

Stay Informed

