Overview

Vaughn Olson assists businesses with a wide array of litigation needs. His experience includes litigating matters involving the False Claims Act, data privacy, class actions, and other complex-commercial matters. Vaughn also has substantial experience advising corporations and organizations during internal investigations.

Vaughn previously served as a judicial law clerk in the US District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. He maintains an active pro bono practice, with a background in litigating prisoners' rights, representing asylum seekers, and advocating for LGBTQ+ rights. Prior to joining Jenner & Block, Vaughn was a Public Interest Law Initiative Fellow with the Roger Baldwin Foundation of the ACLU of Illinois.
