

Partner Neil Barofsky Named to The Algemeiner's “J100” List

Recognition

October 26, 2023

The Algemeiner, a global news outlet that covers the Middle East, Israel, and matters of Jewish interest around the world, named Partner Neil Barofsky to its list of the top 100 people positively influencing Jewish life.

Called the “J100,” the list has become a “global staple” that reflects on the people and trends shaping the Jewish future. The Algemeiner's editors selected Neil for his “impactful work” regarding his investigation into historical Nazi ties.

Neil was recognized, along with Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin and the other awardees, at a gala on October 25. Past honorees include President Biden and UK Prime Minister Rishi Sunak.
