What started when he participated in the Tribal Supreme Court project led by the National Congress of American Indians and the Native American Rights Fund culminated in recent years in two significant victories for Indian Country. Ian provides background of the cases, McGirt v. Oklahoma and Brackeen v. Haaland, both of which he argued before the US Supreme Court. Asked about their bearing on the future, Ian explains that the rulings “reaffirmed both the importance of the rule of law and the core constitutional principles surrounding relationships between Congress and tribal nations.”
