By: David Robbins

Partner David Robbins welcomes Partner Jan Larson, a Co-Chair of the firm's Insurance Recovery and Counseling Practice, to share her insights about what government contractors should know about insurance recovery. As Jan explains, Jenner is uniquely positioned to help contractors because its insurance practice focuses on representing policyholders rather than insurance companies. They discuss the need for an insurance lawyer to protect a client's assets. "I like to think about insurance as a source of recovery that brings money back in, for something that is causing money to go out of the company," Jan says.
