

“Common Exclusions and Defenses to Coverage,” Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education’s Insurance Law, 2023 Edition

Publications

2023 Edition
By: David M. Kroeger

In their chapter, “Common Exclusions and Defenses to Coverage,” for the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education’s (IICLE) Insurance Law – 2023 Edition, Partner David Kroeger and former department counsel Catherine Doyle discuss the role of exclusions found in some insurance policies. The chapter explores different types of exclusions, how they are interpreted, and the factors that are considered by the court when determining whether the exclusions will defeat coverage.

The Insurance Law handbook, published by IICLE, is designed to help lawyers better understand Illinois insurance law. It covers the basic types of policies and coverage and how those policies are interpreted and constructed, the duties of both policyholders and insurers, and particularities unique to the practice of insurance law.

Partner David Kroeger is Co-Chair of the firm’s Insurance Recovery and Counseling Practice, and a leading lawyer in insurance dispute resolution. He is also a co-author of Directors and Officers Liability: Prevention, Insurance and Indemnification and an updating author of Insurance Coverage Disputes.
