

Associate Matthew Summers Argues Before the Virginia Supreme Court in Pro Bono Criminal Appeal

News

December 5, 2023

Jenner & Block Associate Matthew Summers argued before a three-justice writ panel of the Virginia Supreme Court on behalf of a client who was convicted of attempted murder and destruction of property. Our client's conviction was affirmed on appeal to the Virginia Court of Appeals.

The Jenner team challenged the sufficiency of the evidence that was used to prove that our client was the criminal actor and the sufficiency of the finding of specific intent.

Partner Michelle Kallen supervised the case.
