

Associate Christina T. Lopez Appointed as Chair of the ABA's Center for Professional Responsibility New Lawyer Steering Committee

News

January 3, 2024

Associate Christina T. Lopez has been appointed to serve as a Chair on the American Bar Association's 2023-2024 Center for Professional Responsibility New Lawyer Steering Committee.

As a member of the committee, Christina will work to promote and enhance the experience of new and young lawyers in the professional responsibility field by engaging in activities and providing leadership opportunities.

Christina is an associate in the firm's Aerospace and Defense and Professional Responsibility practice groups. Christina assists a wide array of corporate clients in the aviation and defense sectors, and she has experience defending national and international law firms in legal malpractice, breach of fiduciary duty, and disqualification matters.
