

Chicago Real Estate Pros Gather at Jenner for Conversation on the Market

News

February 13, 2024

On February 13, the Chicago Central Area Committee (CCAC) hosted its monthly meeting at our Chicago office, where Partner Michelle McAtee moderated a discussion among local real estate leaders.

The CCAC is a multi-disciplinary organization of civic, cultural, commercial, and other leaders in the Chicago area who are focused on the city's growth and development.

In "The State of Real Estate in Chicago," industry leaders explored the current landscape, trends, and challenges in the Windy City real estate market. The esteemed panelists included Drussy Hernandez, President of the Chicago Association of Realtors and Vice President of Brokerage Services at Coldwell Banker Realty; Meredith O'Connor, International Director at JLL; Jason Turner, Chief Investment Strategist at Great Lakes Advisors, LLC; and James Whalen, Executive Vice President, Midwest Advisory & Transaction Consulting at CBRE.

Michelle is recognized for her contributions to the real estate market locally and internationally. Her industry honors including being named a Real Estate/Construction Law Trailblazer, one of Chicago's Power Women in Real Estate, and a top commercial real estate lawyer in the Midwest. She is a thought leader who frequently speaks and writes about real estate-related legal topics.
