

Anna M. Windemuth

Associate

awindemuth@jenner.com

She / Her

Office

New York

Phone

+1 212 407 1771

Overview

Anna Windemuth advises clients at all phases of litigation in complex business disputes. She has experience representing clients in the telecom, financial services, and cannabis industries, among others. Anna also provides pro bono services in civil rights and immigration cases.

As a law clerk in the Southern District of New York, Anna worked on a wide range of high-stakes commercial litigation matters. In law school, she earned the Francis Wayland Prize for successfully arguing a summary judgment motion under the Freedom of Information Act on behalf of an investigative journalist. Anna received the Israel H. Peres Prize for the best student note or comment appearing in the Yale Law Journal.

Credentials

Admissions

- New York, 2021

Education

- Yale Law School, JD, student director, Media Freedom and Information Access clinic; editor, Yale Law Journal, 2020
- Princeton University, BA, magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, 2017

Clerkships

- Hon. Valerie Caproni, US District Court, Southern District of New York, 2022-2024