

Jenner & Block's Emily Loeb Joins Legal Aid DC's Board of Trustees

News

March 19, 2024

Jenner & Block Partner Emily Loeb, Chair of the Congressional Investigations Practice and Co-Chair of the Government Controversies and Public Policy Litigation Practice, has joined Legal Aid DC's Board of Trustees. Legal Aid DC is the District's oldest and largest civil legal services organization. Since 1932, Legal Aid DC lawyers have helped make justice real in individual and systemic ways in the District.

Emily leverages her deep government and crisis management experience to guide companies and institutions through multi-faceted investigations and congressional inquiries, often during times of intense media scrutiny. As a former Associate Deputy Attorney General at the US Department of Justice and a former Associate White House Counsel, she has extensive experience conducting internal investigations and devising holistic risk management strategies for clients.
