

Terri Mascherin and Mike Doornweerd Discuss How the Firm's Culture Has Developed Lawyers into Judges

News

April 10, 2024

In an article for Chicago Lawyer Magazine, Partners Terri Mascherin and Mike Doornweerd share insights about the culture at Jenner & Block and how that has contributed to 30 alums serving as judges, including the late US Supreme Court Justice John Paul Stevens. Titled "Road to the Federal Bench," the article highlights pathways available to lawyers who want to be judges.

Terri is quoted saying, "Young lawyers are drawn to the firm, find role models, sometimes move on to public service and the bench, and in turn mentor others to do the same. This cycle isn't the intent of our culture, but a manifestation of our commitment to public service that we're very proud of."

"Selecting a firm that supports pro bono work, civic engagement, and bar involvement makes a judgeship more likely," Mike said.

Terri and Mike are Co-Chairs of the firm's Litigation Department.
