Overview

Abi Dore's practice spans across a variety of areas of litigation and arbitration, including banking litigation and civil fraud. Before joining Jenner & Block in 2024, she trained at the London office of an international law firm.

Abi is actively involved in pro bono matters. She recently worked in a team of solicitors and barristers supporting Bail for Immigration Detainees to oppose the rejection of Freedom of Information Requests by the Home Office in relation to Emergency Travel Documents. She also worked on a case with Zacchaeus 2000 Trust appealing the rejection of her client's Personal Independence Payment (PIP) benefit at a Tribunal, obtaining a highly unusual indefinite award for her client.
