

“What a New US Presidential Administration Might Mean for Monitorships,” Global Investigations Review

Publications

May 9, 2024

In their article for Global Investigations Review's “Insight” section, Partners Tony Barkow and Erin Schrantz explore how a new US presidential election may impact monitorships—touching on topics including voluntary disclosure, the cooling-off period, and involvement by other agencies—and what steps companies can take to avoid a monitorship altogether.

The Q&A was published in tandem with the fourth edition of GIR's The Guide to Monitorships, which Tony and Erin edited and authored alongside Jenner Partners Neil Barofsky, Matt Cipolla, Thomas Perrelli, and Michael Ross.
