

Partner Laurie Edelstein Honored by Lambda Legal

Recognition

May 20, 2024

Partner Laurie Edelstein was honored by Lambda Legal for her exceptional and extraordinary work in defending against the ever-increasing assaults on the LGBTQ+ communities by civil rights infringing laws.

Laurie has served as Lambda Legal's primary co-counsel in three cases of enormous importance to the LGBTQ+ community and authored multiple amicus briefs in support of Lambda's cases and other matters affecting the LGBTQ+ community over the last six years.

Laurie helped prepare and argue Lambda's challenge to the Trump administration's rule revoking regulatory healthcare protections for LGBTQ people and other vulnerable populations. She currently is Lambda's and the ACLU's primary co-counsel in challenging Oklahoma's ban on gender-affirming medical care for trans adolescents and Lambda and the ACLU of Iowa's primary co-counsel in challenging Iowa's "Don't Say LGBTQ" law and book ban. The recognition was presented at the San Francisco Soiree on May 17.

Energy and technology companies nationwide bring their most pressing legal problems and disputes to Laurie. Clients turn to her for contract disputes, competition issues, regulatory obligations, negligence allegations, and consumer challenges.
