By: Rob Dalling, Karam Jardaneh

In their article for the Middle East Law Journal, The Oath, Partners Rob Dalling and Alexis Early, along with Senior Associate Karam Jardaneh, discuss why developing a risk-based approach to sanctions compliance is key to avoiding exposure.

The piece highlights how EU, UK, and US sanctions target not only entities within Russia but also those in the Middle East that might facilitate trade with Russia. The authors emphasise the necessity for Middle Eastern companies to adopt a risk-based approach to sanctions compliance, given the expanding territorial scope and enforcement efforts by Western sanctions authorities. The article also covers the commercial and regulatory risks posed by these sanctions and the potential for similar issues in trade with other sanctioned countries.
