

Navigating Financial Sanctions in English Law Disputes, Solicitors Journal

Publications

July 9, 2024

By: Rob Dalling, Karam Jardaneh, Abi Dore

In their recent article for the Solicitors Journal, Partner Rob Dalling, Senior Associate Karam Jardaneh, and Associate Abi Dore discusses the key takeaways from recent litigation involving sanctions issues.

The authors explain how the rise of financial sanctions imposed by the UK and other jurisdictions against Russia has had a significant effect on private law disputes within the UK. The article explores important themes arising from these disputes such as access to justice, force majeure and illegality, jurisdictional challenges, and the challenges faced by lawyers themselves when representing designated persons.
