Overview

George is an associate in Jenner & Block’s Business Litigation Practice. He is laser-focused on providing tailored representation to clients navigating a wide variety of disputes, and his diverse experience—including as a federal court clerk—gives him the legal acumen to solve complex issues and assist in resolving clients’ needs in all stages of litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, George clerked for the Honorable Duane Benton on the US Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit and the Honorable Stephen R. Bough on the US District Court for the Western District of Missouri. He additionally gained trial experience at an AmLaw 100 firm. George earned his JD from the Northwestern Pritzker School of Law.
