We were proud to host a Business Climate Economy Roundtable discussion on sustainability and opportunities for growth between Chicago and London, in partnership with the Mayor of Chicago, Brandon Johnson, and World Business Chicago, at our London office on Friday 11 October.

Smith, Vice Chair of World Business Chicago and CEO of CS Insurance Strategies, and Kristopher Anderson, Director of Government Affairs at United Airlines. Together, they explored and discussed innovative solutions and collaborative strategies to drive sustainable growth for the city of Chicago.

A special thank you to Chicago Partner and member of the World Business Chicago board, Wade Thomson, and our London Managing Partner, Christine Braamskamp, for welcoming our esteemed guests to the London Office.
