By: Lucy Blake, Will Weaver

Partners Lucy Blake and Will Weaver were quoted in the Education Journal on online harms legislation. With the existing and proposed laws to regulate online harms in the UK, EU and US (including the UK Online Safety Act, proposed new UK Safer Phones Bill, EU Digital Services Act and proposed US Kids Online Safety Act), Lucy and Will noted that “policing the internet requires a global effort” and that “consistency is key”. Regulators should look to provide “tangible and actionable direction to help global companies navigate their legal requirements... and balance users’ rights to free speech, privacy and safety”.
