Moshe’s panel will begin at 10:45 am in Tysons Corner, VA. A staple in the Year in Review program, this panel discusses the most important bid protest decisions of 2024.

Moshe assists government contractors in navigating diverse issues across the government contracts and grants landscape. Moshe prosecutes and defends complex and high-stakes bid protests before the US Government Accountability Office (GAO) and the US Court of Federal Claims (COFC). He has litigated more than 100 protests and has repeatedly obtained meaningful relief for clients in strategically important procurements.
