

Partner Jason Hipp Appointed to The Center for Justice and Accountability's Board of Directors

News

December 6, 2024

Jason Hipp, Co-Chair of the Firm's Human Rights and Global Strategy practice, has been appointed to serve on the Board of Directors of The Center for Justice and Accountability (CJA).

CJA is a nonprofit organization dedicated to ensuring justice for victims of human rights violations, particularly those who have suffered from torture, extrajudicial executions, and other forms of gross abuse. The organization uses innovative litigation, policy, and transitional justice strategies to deter torture, war crimes, crimes against humanity, and other severe human rights abuses around the world.
