Co-Managing Partner Ishan Bhabha has been elected as a member of the American Law Institute (ALI), a leading independent organization in the United States producing scholarly work to clarify, modernize, and otherwise improve the law. As a member, Ishan will work alongside others to clarify the law through Restatements, Principles, and Model Codes.

"The election of new members is a proud tradition at ALI, and this class continues that legacy with distinction," said ALI President David F. Levi. "Our newest members are some of the most accomplished lawyers, judges, and academics in their fields, who I am sure will help shape not only the future of the ALI but also the legal landscape at large. Bringing in fresh perspectives and innovative ideas is vital to the Institute as we tackle the complexities of modern law. I am confident that their contributions will further our mission in meaningful and lasting ways."

Ishan joins several Jenner lawyers as a member of the Institute, including Ian Heath Gershengorn, Robert Graham, Keith Harper, Josh Hsu, and Daniel Murray.

Regarded as one of the nation's preeminent lawyers for institutions of higher education and large corporations and organizations facing challenges with significant financial, operational, or reputational risk, Ishan is a go-to lawyer for organizations facing their most difficult and high-stakes challenges. A dedicated leader within the firm, Ishan was elected to serve as the firm's Co-Managing Partner, effective January 1, 2025. He also serves as a Co-Chair of the firm's Education Practice and its Technology Practice, and as a member of the firm's Management Committee.
