In an exclusive interview with The Lawyer, Jenner and Block announces that Baker McKenzie's former investigations head Joanna Ludlam, will be joining the firm to launch a public law and crisis management practice in London.

Joanna will join Jenner & Block on 27 January, when she will also become co-chair of the firm's investigations department alongside Washington, DC partner, David Bitkower.

Jenner & Block managing partner Christine Braamskamp told The Lawyer: “We spoke for hours at our first meeting and by the time we met the second time we had a business plan, because it was such an easy match”.

The focus for Joanna's first few weeks at the firm will be to embed herself in Jenner & Block on a transnational level, with the plan to establish a client base and practice in London that will also serve US clients with multi-jurisdictional matters.
