

Partner Miwa Shoda to Speak at 2025 California International Arbitration Week

News

January 24, 2025

Jenner & Block Partner Miwa Shoda will participate in a panel during the 2025 California International Arbitration Week, a leading event that celebrates international arbitration in California. Hosted by Jenner & Block, along with other prominent arbitration institutions and organizations from around the globe, the event will take place at the Westwood LA Hotel in Los Angeles from March 10 to 13. Jenner & Block is among the sponsors.

Miwa's panel, titled Behind the Scenes: The Reality of Navigating Disputes of the Fantasy World of the Japanese Gaming and Entertainment Industry, will take place on March 10. The panel will delve into the handling of real-life disputes that have troubled the creative world of Californian and Japanese companies engaged in the gaming and entertainment industry. The panel will also examine the suitability of IP disputes for arbitration and extent of arbitrability of such disputes.

Miwa is a Co-Chair of the firm's Japan Practice. She has over 20 years of experience representing Japanese companies in various litigation and transactional and corporate matters in the United States.
