

Jenner & Block Releases 2025 Edition of the Illinois Civil Practice Guide

Publications

January 30, 2025

By: Andrew W. Vail, Chris Blythe, Sriya Chadalavada, Savannah E.B. McNeily

Whether you are navigating murky legal waters or simply looking to scale up your practice, Jenner & Block's Illinois Civil Practice Guide—now in its 14th year—continues to be an essential resource for practitioners across the state.

The 2025 edition of the Illinois Civil Practice Guide provides comprehensive guidance on Illinois civil rules and procedures. This edition has been updated to address revisions to Illinois Supreme Court rules (including rules that govern artificial intelligence (AI), the service of pleadings involving self-represented litigants, the electronic filing of pleadings, and the service of process and proof of service), case developments, and questions raised by practitioners throughout the last year, as well as practice pointers on e-service.

The publication is co-authored by Partner Andrew Vail and Associates Christopher Blythe, Sriya Chadalavada, Savannah McNeily, and Kendall Wharton.
