

Partner Charlie Galbraith to Join 11th Annual Wiring the Rez Conference

Event

February 11, 2025

Speakers: Charles W. Galbraith

On February 20, Partner Charlie Galbraith will participate in a panel discussion at this year's Wiring the Rez Conference hosted by Arizona State University's Sandra Day O'Connor College. The session, "A Second Trump Presidency: What Should Tribes Expect," will bring together industry thought leaders to offer valuable insights on what tribes can anticipate under a second Trump administration and how they can best prepare.

Learn More

As Co-Chair of Jenner's Native American Law Practice, Charlie represents tribal clients in complex litigation and major financial transactions. He was previously the Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of Arizona and also served in the White House under President Barack Obama, where he managed relationships with all tribal governments and Native American people, advising on political, legislative, legal, and media issues.

Related Capabilities

Native American Law

Related Locations

Washington, DC

Stay Informed

