

"Nonprofit Civic Engagement, Election Administration Activities Under Congressional Scrutiny," NonProfit PRO

Publications

March 5, 2025

Jenner & Block Partner Dawn Smalls and Associates Illyana Green and Lauren May recently authored the article "Nonprofit Civic Engagement, Election Administration Activities Under Congressional Scrutiny," published in NonProfit PRO, a leading resource for nonprofit management and strategy. In the article, the authors highlight the growing scrutiny from Congress on tax-exempt organizations, particularly 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) entities, due to their involvement in civic engagement and election administration. The authors advise nonprofits engaged in these activities to proactively prepare for ongoing oversight and carefully review their compliance programs to mitigate potential legal challenges.
