Companies operating in the EU and UK should not let ESG compliance slide, Partner Lucy Blake and Associates Karam Jardaneh and André Nwadiakwa explain why in an article for ESG Foundation.

“The Omnibus Proposals include changes to application thresholds, timing for compliance, and scope of the obligations, but the impact on large global companies may be limited,” the Jenner team commented. They added that “while the changes suggest a shift towards deregulation, large global companies may still face the original legislation’s more onerous obligations. Regardless, the EU’s legislation is only the tip of the iceberg and failure to implement ESG programs could also result in other significant commercial and legal ramifications.”
