

Associate Steven Arango Speaks to George Mason University Students at National Security Institute (NSI) Event

Event

April 15, 2025

Speakers: Steven J. Arango

Steven Arango, Associate in Jenner & Block's Investigations, Compliance, & Defense Practice, spoke at a National Security Institute (NSI) event on April 15.

This event offered George Mason University students from the Scalia School of Law, Schar School of Policy and Government, and Carter School for Peace and Conflict Resolution a unique opportunity to hear about Steven's career at the intersection of law, national security, and emerging technology.

Steven specializes in complex and sensitive investigations, as well as regulatory and defense work. His career has spanned litigation, regulatory compliance, investigations, and strategic policy guidance, providing counsel to senior US government officials and achieving impactful results in high-stakes domestic and international settings.

Related Attorneys

Steven J. Arango

Associate

sarango@jenner.com

+1 202 637 6348

Related Capabilities

Investigations, Compliance, and Defense

Related Locations

Washington, DC

Stay Informed

