Financial Litigation

Overview

Connor represents clients involved in cross-border and complex commercial litigation, as well as international arbitration cases. His experience in cases spans a wide range of areas, including civil fraud, financial services, insolvency, and sports law.

Connor has acted for large corporate and financial institutions before the High Court, the Court of Appeal, and before arbitral tribunals under ICC and LCIA rules. His experience includes successfully obtaining urgent injunctive relief in an ICC emergency arbitration and judgment without trial and a civil restraint order in a High Court litigation.

Before joining the firm, Connor was an associate in the commercial disputes practice of another leading international law firm and acted as in-house dispute resolution counsel for Formula 1.
