Overview

Sarah S. Lee is a former federal prosecutor who draws on her extensive experience in civil and criminal litigation to counsel clients. As an Assistant United States Attorney in the Major Frauds section of the Central District of California, she litigated high-profile and complex fraud, RICO, and money laundering cases throughout the country's largest judicial district.

As a member of the firm's Investigations, Compliance, and Defense Practice, Sarah helps clients navigate their toughest problems, including in civil and criminal investigations and government proceedings. She has experience in a wide array of issues, including contractual, privacy, and intellectual property disputes.

Sarah has significant trial experience and served as lead counsel in multiple jury and bench trials. As an AUSA, she also managed over 50 criminal cases, including appeals to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. In one of her trials, she successfully obtained a guilty verdict in a three-week investor fraud trial involving the founder and CEO of a tech company.
