

“Due Diligence in Dubai: Lessons for Valuing Alternative Investments,” Law.com International

Publications

July 28, 2025

In an article for Law.com International, Partners Charles Riely and Christian Tuddenham, Special Counsel Ali Alsarraf, and Associate Kaela Theut examine the Dubai Financial Services Authority (“DFSA”)’s recent announcement that it’s considering major regulatory revisions.

The article discusses the basics of alternate asset valuation, what can go wrong with valuation protocol, and best practices in due diligence and monitoring.

“Dubai’s explosive economic growth and relaxed regulatory framework will continue to attract hedge funds to the region,” the authors write. The article explains why and how “[i]nvestors should understand the process behind how these complex assets are valued so that they can conduct due diligence and monitor their investments.”
