

Jenner & Block Ranked #4 on The American Lawyer's A-List

Recognition

August 13, 2025

The American Lawyer's A-List has ranked Jenner & Block No. 4 in the 2025 rankings—a 10-spot leap from last year and the biggest jump of any firm on this year's list. This recognition places us in the top five of an elite 20 firm list receiving the A-List ranking as being “the best of the best.”

The A-List is AmLaw's annual ranking of firms operating at the highest level—excelling not just in financial success but across talent, culture, and social responsibility. The A-list evaluates firms using data-driven methodology, measuring success based on revenue per lawyer, pro bono, diversity, female equity partner percentage, and midlevel associate satisfaction.

“The A-List reflects what we believe defines a great law firm: being the best at what we do, a great place to work, and important contributors to our communities,” said Co-Managing Partners Ishan Bhabha and Randy Mehrberg. “It affirms that Jenner’s zealous advocacy, fearless values, and strong results go hand-in-hand with how we support our clients, each other, and our communities. This commitment has driven our firm forward for more than 100 years and is core to the Jenner DNA.”

This recognition builds on our recent achievement as the No. 1 pro bono firm in the United States and internationally, as recognized in The American Lawyer's Pro Bono Scorecard.
