

Partner Lindsay Harrison Named Finalist for The American Lawyer's 2025 Litigator of the Year

Recognition

September 2, 2025

Washington, DC Office Managing Partner Lindsay Harrison has been named a finalist for The American Lawyer's 2025 Litigator of the Year award. This recognition honors the nation's most outstanding litigators—those whose advocacy has shaped the law and delivered transformative results for clients.

Over the past year, Lindsay has led precedent-setting victories across constitutional law, administrative law, data privacy, reproductive healthcare, and public infrastructure. Her teams have secured five injunctions in high-impact cases in the first half of 2025 alone, won a unanimous Supreme Court ruling preserving judicial review of government conduct, and guided major corporations and institutions through industry-defining litigation.

From safeguarding emergency medical care for patients to preserving billions in federal research funding, Lindsay's work demonstrates fearless advocacy with national impact. As one general counsel noted, she is "exactly the lawyer you want on your side when the stakes are high—smart, creative, and unmatched in her judgment."
