

Associate Ashutosh Ray Speaks at Inter-Pacific Bar Association's 2025 Arbitration Day

Event

September 18, 2025

Speakers: Ashutosh Ray

Associate Ashutosh Ray spoke on a panel at the Inter-Pacific Bar Association's (IPBA) 2025 Arbitration Day in Mumbai, India on September 18.

The panel discussed innovative solutions for dispute resolutions and the growing importance of international arbitration in an increasingly complex global landscape.

Ashutosh focuses on cross-border international disputes including commercial and investor-state arbitrations. Having studied and worked in India, Switzerland, the United States, France, Korea, and the United Kingdom, he is sensitive to legal and cultural nuances involved in complex disputes. Ashutosh was part of the Law Commission of India's expert committees that reported to the government of India, recommending changes to India's arbitration statute and its Model Bilateral Investment Treaty.

Related Attorneys

Ashutosh Ray

Associate

ray.ashutosh@jenner.com

+44 330 060 5459

Related Capabilities

International Arbitration

Related Locations

London

Stay Informed

