

Jenner & Block Receives Asian Americans Advancing Justice's 2025 American Courage Award

Recognition

October 2, 2025

On October 2, Jenner & Block received the Asian Americans Advancing Justice's (AAJC) 2025 American Courage Award.

The AAJC presents the American Courage Award annually to recognize individuals or organizations that demonstrate extraordinary commitment to civil rights. This year, the AAJC honored four firms that exemplify the highest ideals of the legal profession — courage, integrity, and an unshakeable dedication for justice under the law.

Washington, DC Office Managing Partner Lindsay Harrison accepted the award on behalf of the firm.

For more than 110 years, Jenner's zealous advocacy, principled values, and unwavering commitment to justice have been instrumental in upholding constitutional protections and ensuring access to legal recourse for both paying and pro bono clients.
