The presentation will identify changes in supply chain risks with the policies of the Trump administration and discuss considerations related to the cartel-related terrorist designations. Rachel and Rob will explore the impact of US and UK Iran sanctions policy on global supply chains and analyze UK attempts to combat sanctions evasion by targeting supply chains engaged in circumvention of Russia sanctions.

As Co-Chair of our National Security and Crisis Practice, Rachel guides multinational companies and institutions through the complex landscape of US sanctions, export controls, and national security regulations.

A Partner in Jenner's London office, Rob has extensive experience in financial and trade sanctions and export controls, regularly advising financial institutions and other companies on complex issues in these areas.
