

Jenner & Block Named to Top 25 in Summer Associate Satisfaction Rankings

Recognition

October 13, 2025

Jenner & Block ranked 24th in The American Lawyer's 2025 Summer Associate Satisfaction Survey. The American Lawyer conducts this annual survey measuring the satisfaction of summer associates at the nation's law firms, with scores based on associate ratings across key firm qualities. This recognition continues Jenner's strong momentum in industry rankings, following the firm's Top 20 placement in The American Lawyer's 2025 Midlevel Associate Survey.

Summer Associates at Jenner & Block enjoy a dynamic program that combines substantive legal work with memorable experiences, from attending cultural events and professional sporting games to participating in office-specific networking opportunities. The program offers exposure to the firm's diverse practice areas, including government controversies and Congressional investigations, appellate work, voting rights litigation, entertainment law, national security, and more. Summer Associates also have the opportunity to work on meaningful pro bono matters, making a real impact from the start of their legal careers.
