Overview

Conrad represents clients involved in complex commercial disputes. His experience includes civil fraud claims, post-M&A and shareholder disputes, competition litigation, and the enforcement of arbitral awards. He has worked on proceedings before the High Court and leading arbitral institutions.

Alongside his commercial practice, Conrad has also assisted pro bono claimants under the Windrush Compensation Scheme and represented individuals before the Personal Independence Payment Tribunal.

Before joining Jenner & Block, Conrad trained at another leading international US law firm in London and Singapore.
