

Partner Suedeem Kelly to Speak at PLI Energy Law and Practice 2025

News

November 17, 2025

On December 9, Partner Suedeem Kelly will co-lead a session at PLI Energy Law and Practice 2025: Greening the US Power Grid in New York. She will be joined by Timothy J. Lucey, Managing Counsel and Senior Director, Ethics Programs, for Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E).

The session, titled, “Energy Landscape 2025: Where Does Clean Energy Fit Within Skyrocketing Demand and Affordability Challenges?” will discuss current legal and regulatory developments across the US energy sector and evolving state and federal policy responses.

As Co-Chair of the firm's Energy Practice, Suedeem represents a variety of clients in the electric and natural gas industries, helping them address the challenging decisions they face by understanding, navigating, complying with, and as needed, changing federal, state, and local energy law and policy.
