

Jenner & Block New York Celebrates 20 Years of Excellence and Service

News

December 2, 2025

Jenner & Block's New York office celebrated its 20th anniversary with a recent event at Lincoln Center, marking two decades of distinguished client service, pro bono leadership, and commitment to the legal community in one of the world's most competitive markets.

"When the stakes are highest, Jenner & Block shows up, with zealous client service, excellence, and integrity," said New York Office Managing Partner Tony Barkow.

Since opening its doors on November 7, 2005, Jenner's New York office has established itself as a go-to firm for complex, high-stakes matters—from bet-the-company litigation and investigations presenting existential risk to market-defining transactions and constitutional challenges that uphold the rule of law.

"For 20 years, Jenner has been right in the thick of everything that matters in New York City—business, politics, entertainment, thought leadership, culture, and law."

The office has contributed over 200,000 pro bono hours to the New York community, partnering with organizations that strengthen the fabric of the city. Among these partnerships is the Lincoln Center, where the anniversary celebration was hosted—a fitting venue that represents both world-class excellence and the firm's deep commitment to service.

As we look toward its next twenty years in New York, the firm remains committed to doing what it does best in the city that demands the very best—standing firm for clients, upholding the rule of law, and serving the community that has been central to its success.
