

Lexology Panoramic: Administrative & Public Law 2026

Publications

December 16, 2025
By: Joanna Ludlam, Will Jones

Partner Joanna Ludlam and Special Counsel Will Jones served as editors for the 2026 edition of Lexology Panoramic: Administrative & Public Law, as well as authoring the chapter for England & Wales.

The guide provides a country-by-country comparison of sources of constitutional law; the role of international law; judicial review mechanisms; public procurement; human rights; freedom of information; public inquiries; and recent trends. Contemporary political, cultural, and technological developments continue to present fresh challenges for public law practitioners worldwide. The guide explores pressing issues including how public law principles transcend political ideology and the complex questions raised by AI in government decision making. It serves as a practical primer, helping public lawyers and other professionals navigate the evolving mechanisms that govern the relationship between citizens and the state in the 21st century.
