Terri is Co-Chair of the firm's Litigation Department and Education Practice and is recognized as one of the most influential trial and arbitration lawyers in the United States. A Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, she has built her reputation on getting results for businesses, law firms, lawyers, and higher education institutions facing high-stakes challenges. She also puts the full force of her experience behind pro bono matters, including criminal defense for the wrongfully accused and convicted. Terri served as president of the Chicago Bar Association and was instrumental in defending former Illinois Governor George Ryan's clemency orders clearing death row for 167 prisoners.
