January 12, 2026

Notre Dame Lawyer Magazine profiled Washington, DC, Associate Rachel Palermo, chronicling her journey from law student to serving in the White House and now practicing at Jenner & Block. The article details how Rachel balanced her legal education with hands-on political experience, including working on Mayor Pete Buttigieg's presidential primary campaign while a second-year law student and joining the Office of the Vice President while a third-year law student, where she later served as Deputy Communications Director and Associate Counsel to Vice President Kamala Harris.
